Note: rding to the Government of India's letter recorded in G.O.No.340 nce dated 24-6-44, the Civil Accounts Officers who watch the recov of le salary contributions in the case of civil Government serva call to military duty should arrange to miantain the leave accoun f the overnment servants in question and, when any occasion arises, advis the appropriate Military Accounts Officer in regard to the l of ve and the rate of leave salary admissible. As this might take me in ving delay in the payment of leave salary to the Government serts concerned, the Government of India decided that the milita Accounts Officer might in the meantime, make anticipatory pa ents an indisputed rate on a provisional basis. This permission was orded avoid delays in the payment of leave salaries under the co ition military service then prevailing. Now that these conditi s no ger exist, the Government of India have decided that the specia proc e referred to above should be disconginued forthwith.

The letter from he G nment of India maybe recorded and communicated to all Heads of D ments and Departments of the Secretariat for information nd nce in continuation of the G.O. cited. Pub.(Ser) may see before
